

SKIweekEND

Imagine you're on a mountain in Norway. It's heaps of snow and you're on the highest point. The sun is still shining but OMG – you're freezing your butt off! The snow looks blue and makes a funny sound under your skies. In the forest, which is all covered like a white carpet, it's pretty damn sure some huge trolls! But you just can't feel scared with all of your IAEA friends around...

Now, you're just looking forward to enjoy this day in the slopes. Not to mention the after ski everyone has been talking about... The stories about all the crazy Viking parties, are they true? Can they drink for hours in a sauna or will the Viking warrior's equipment keep the same size after a nude bath in the snow? Only one way to find out...

BE THERE!

IAEA Norway proudly presents:

SKIWEEKEND in Norefjell

8 – 11 March 2012.

One hour from Oslo.

We are happy to pick you up at the airport/train station etc.

About 1000 NOK per person.

For more info contact Olly (+4797773886)

Gard (+4791519321)

Or mail to ts_a135@hotmail.com